Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.An opposites attract fun and sexy romance. When Lady Hermione Spencer's parents ask her to house-sit their summer home in New Zealand while they have some landscaping work carried out, Hermione's happy to agree. It's the perfect opportunity to look for suitable hotels for her romantic retreats business back in the UK, plus it provides a temporary escape from the man she's been betrothed to since she was a child. The Kiwi house in the Bay of Islands feels like a palace after her small flat, and she does her best not to think about her impending marriage. Then the gardener arrives, and suddenly life's not so simple anymore. Unable to obtain a higher education because he looks after his disabled father, Danny Love has spent years developing his own landscaping firm. He supposes he should be resentful when the snooty daughter of the Spencers assumes he's just one of the workmen, but all he can think about is her sexy curves and what fun it would be to seduce the lady of the manor. So he strings her along for a while, knowing that when she finds out the truth it'll only make her embarrassment worse. The sexual tension builds between them, and it's not long before Hermione succumbs to his outrageous flirting. Danny plans to seduce her, but what he doesn't realize is that beneath her little-rich-girl persona is a gentle innocence that's going to captivate the man who had to grow up fast, and who's always believed romance to be a capitalist creation. Their lifestyles and backgrounds are world apart, but...
