For many weeks She had been coquetting with the earth: shy and virginal, She had trailed Her delicate robe of green across the meadow, touched the fruit-trees until they blushed, tempted the flowers from the grass, and then had run swiftly away and hidden from sight, leaving a chill behind. Each bare patch of brown was covered at last, and all the earth was an emerald glow where blades of grass stood up proud and springing with vitality and freshness that proclaimed the story of Life's renewal: golden dandelions and purple violets starred the bright green grass - a regal wealth of colour.
