Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from How Girls Can Help Their Country If character training and learning citizenship are necessary for boys, how much more important it is that these principles should be instilled into the minds of girls who are destined to be the mothers and guides of the next generation. An attractive and practical form of active educational pastime is needed and for this purpose the Girl Scouts are organized. The Scout movement, so popular among boys, is unfitted for the needs of girls, but on something the same lines has been devised the present system giving a more womanly training for both mind and body. Honor, duty, loyalty, kindness, comradeship, purity, cheerfulness, and thrift, are the qualities it seeks to develop. To be a Girl Scout, a girl should love and admire these things in other people, seek to attain them herself, and to promote them among her comrades, not in any priggish fashion, but through being loyal, honorable, kind, and helpful, in the home, in the school, in the field, on the playground, and in the Club Room. Abstract talks about these qualities mean little to youth. Because this is so, a set of definite laws is given to the leaders to be read at their own discretion to the girls as practical definition of what it means to be honorable, loyal, helpful, etc. When a leader has come to know a girl, and the girl has become well known to the other girls, if, in the opinion of the leader, she has become fine and strong enough to meet the requirements of the law, she may be permitted, if she so desires, to promise to do...
