The Spanish Liberals attacked the Government for any sign of hesitancy or moderation in declaring war against Germany. For the time the King and Ministry were wellnigh swept off their feet by the wave of excitement. But the German Government was not correspondingly agitated. In a short time Prince Bismarck sent a pacific note to the Spanish authorities, disclaiming all intention of violating the rights of Spain. With the opening of negotiations the difficulty was easily adjusted. The too energetic occupation of Yap by the German commander was disavowed, and Spain was permitted to resume her sway. in that part of the Pacific waters. The event was chiefly significant for the check which it gave to the colonization policy in Germany. Nor may the critical reader fail to note the. further overwhelming generosity of the German Government in nominating the Pope as. the arbitrator in the recent pending disturb-ance between the Empire and Spain. While the colonial agitation was on in.i Germany, the passion for emigration appeared, and rose to such a heat as almost to threaten the depopulation of the country. Of a certainty, grave reasons have existed in the Fatherland, for the exodus of her people. The Germans, are by ethnic instinct a home-producing audi home-staying division of mankind. The charge. of unpatriotism can never be truthfully brought against men of the Teutonic race. On the contrary, since the days of Tacitus the Germans have been cited and...
